Join us for an incredible, two-day, 210-mile bike journey from Athens, GA – Savannah, GA!

Ride departs from Clarke Middle School at 8 a.m. on Friday, May 14th 2010, and arrives in Savannah on Saturday afternoon, May 15th.

The tax-deductible basic fee of $200 (make out checks to “Clarke Middle School”) will cover your lunches for both days, drinks, snacks, power bars, maps, continual sag support, and transportation back to Athens on Sunday morning. Riders are responsible for the cost of breakfasts and dinners, and for hotel rooms (unless you raise/donate $1,000 to the school—if you do, we’ll pay for your night in Savannah). We have pre-booked a block of hotel rooms in Louisville

(1st night) and Savannah (2nd night). To reserve your rooms, you will need to contact the Louisville Motor Lodge for the evening of May 14th (478-625-7168) and the Hilton Garden Inn Historic Savannah for the evening of May 15th (912-721-5000).

Funds raised from the bike ride will be used to support overall school needs including, but not limited to, instructional/extracurricular programs, student/staff recognition and campus beautification projects. Art and music, sports, gifted and special education, after-school programs, and field trips are some of the programs that will be supported by your generous contributions. A portion of the funds raised may also be used for staff incentives, and professional registrations and fees.

I want to bike to Savannah with y’all! Please mail or return this form and your payment to Dr. Kelley Castlin-Gacutan, Principal, Clarke Middle School, 1235 Baxter Street, Athens, GA 30606. You can also drop off your form and check at any Athens Jittery Joe’s coffee shop, or you can register online at www.active.com.
